Bio

For a healthier lifestyle and a happier planet

General Catalogue

We believe that, somewhere along the way, many people have lost the ability to live in harmony with nature. Solleone Bio wanted to create a range of food products for daily use to get you back on the right path: simple, healthy and natural as it was in the days of our grandparents. This is our inspiration.

The pillars of our philosophy are:

QUALITY

TRADITION

RESPECT FOR THE ENVIRONMENT

In 2016 Solleone Bio was born, pursuing the dream of creating a brand that produced products with the highest quality in Italy. For each of them, we defined the Best Quality criteria and then, working backwards, to find the best raw materials and production methods to achieve it.

The points common to all Solleone Bio products are:

- Respect for tradition
- Ingredients that even our grandmother would use
- Low temperatures, so as not to “stress” the products
- Respect for the planet
- Uncompromising quality
